LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Who was Voltaire?
Eggs are very scarce.
You who O come and pay.
Organize your debating club.
New corn commands 40 cents.
Hog cholera is bad all around.
Rubber Hats at Jos. Woerner's.
Plenty of fresh fish in our market.
Wheat is worth 88 cents in Eaton.
Brides don't wear jewelry any more.
Lots of people in town last Saturday.
Walnuts are plenty. Bring us a bushel.
C. J. White is out on his annual deer hunt.
Velvet and Plush Ties, newest out, at Jos. Woerner's.
Quail are ripe and sell at $1.50 per dozen. Can't indulge in the luxury.
The man with the new fall suit is now abroad.
Kid gloves are now nearly as long as stockings.
The bare-footed boy is now the possessor of a pair of new boots.
The matrimonial market continues strong with an upward tendency.
Unlaundered White Shirts, linen front and cuffs, 47c., at Jos. Woerner's.
As the Corporation "ox" has been gored long enough, try some other one.
We want two or three loads of good dry stove wood. Who'll furnish it?
We have a "dead beat" list made out to open the new year of our Lord 1883.
"Voltaire," Opera House, Thursday evening, Nov. 22d.

Don't forget to see Royer's winter apples next week.
A true friend to the weak and convalescent is Brown's Iron Bitters.
We need money, and we hope all owing us will at least bring a part of it.
El Thompson has returned from his Iowa visit.
Mrs. Hooper, of Waseka, Ill., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Joseph S. Campbell.
Apples are a luxury, the retail price for best winter being from $1.60 to $2.00 per bushel.

Because last winter was mild it is alleged that the coming one will be very severe with plenty of snow.
Unhappy is the man for whom his mother has not made all other mothers venerable.
Unlaundered White Shirts, linen front and cuffs, 47c., at Jos. Woerner's.
Give the kids a chance at night. They are full of fiddle-strings and must make a noise sometimes or bust.

The quail have expired, we are now ready for shot-gun accidents or quail donations.
Our police court never had less business. Is it the result of a "no Sunday and free whiskey" victory?
It was a very bad little boy who said when he first saw lightning, "Pa, hell's a leekin' awful bad, ain't it?"
Has Ingersoll improved on the philosophy of Voltaire?

Wood hauling is the order of the day. The roads are in excellent condition for it, and our wood measure is kept busy.
For lame Back, Side or Chest, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. Price 25c. Sold by Webb & Coover.
Miss Lizzie Hiestand, of Carlisle, O., has been visiting her brother, H. C. Hiestand.

It is expected that chestnut worms this year will have an unusually gamey flavor.
Go to church now, the elections are all over and the pastors will preach you pure and undiluted religion.
Philip Miller got home last week from his Michigan hunt. He made five of the fleet-footed forest rovers bite the dust.

Mrs. Chas. Porter, of Vincennes, Ind., was the guest last week of Mrs. C. F. Brooke.
Judge Goode, of Springfield, is holding Court in Eaton, while Judge Gilmore is holding Court at Springfield.
Mr. Wilson Kohrer will have a lot of fine winter apples next week, at the depot. Don't forget to call and see them.
Boys' Knit Mittens and Gloves 20, 25 and 30c., at Jos. Woerner's.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is a really remarkable and time-honored medicine. It is the best known remedy for all diseases of the throat and lungs.
This year's cabbage crop is an immense one, and that vegetable will be cheap enough to average up against the scarcity of apples.
Miss Belle Dix had the pleasure of a visit from her father, mother and brother, from Eaton last Saturday and Sunday. —Xenia Home Weekly.

As we look out upon our streets as they lie covered with the falling leaves, we are reminded that the "melancholy days" are certainly here.
The fact that the comet has already gone to pieces is a startling warning against the habit of early rising. Please take warning, early risers.
It has been ascertained that wheat will shrink in six months six per cent., and corn in the same time not far from twenty per cent.

The social event of the season in Eaton, was Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Deem's party, on Thursday evening of last week. All present give it high praise.
Croup, Whooping cough and Bronchitis immediately relieved by Shiloh's cure. Sold by Webb & Coover.
J. Reeder Hubbell, a former resident of Eaton and a brother of S. H. Hubbell, was buried in Dayton on Tuesday last. He had many warm friends in this place.

Our friend A. C. Van Doren has a cow that gives first-class butter milk. We sampled a bucketful and know it to be a superior article.
See the Stiff Hat for $2 at Jos. Woerner's.
Mrs. Sam'l Lockwood, Mrs. Pinney and family, and Miss Anna Hancock, all of Brookings, Dakota, are visiting in Eaton. Mrs. Pinney will spend the winter at St. Clair Springs.

The cranberry crop of the east is a failure, and every man who understands that it takes two pounds of sugar to sweeten a handful of the berries will be glad of it.

Is the opening and widening of a street that the Corporation has not "desired" and that benefits only two or three individuals, a "public improvement?" Hardly. But go on.

A permanent restoration of exhausted and worn-out functions follow the use of Brown's Iron Bitters.
It rained grasshoppers down at Camden one day last week, until the streets were covered with them. Some were inches long. Wonder what it means.

That hacking cough can be so quickly cured by Shiloh's Cure. We guarantee it. Sold by Webb & Coover.
When the great walking contest of the bosses of the world fizzle out in New York city, it couldn't be expected that a one-hoss match would pan out very profitably in Eaton.

The man who labors to elevate mankind finds but few to assist him in the work, but the man who starts out to lower the standard of humanity can find all the assistance he wants without advertising for hands.

William Ackerman, jr., is now ready to supply families with a superior article of celery, crisp and sweet, the best in the market. Call and try it.
J. G. Hoffman, Esq., of New Lexington, Perry county, dropped in to see us last week, while here attending the marriage of his brother William. He is one of our live young Democrats and feels much elated over the Ohio election.

There is an encouraging report in circulation to the effect that seal skin has been patented. If it be true, poor, but fashionable women will speedily discover a new object in life that will give them unbounded pleasure.

Mr. Levi Drury, who was well and favorably known in Preble county, died at his farm home on the Indiana line, west of Eaton, last week, in his 74th year. He was buried at Boston last Sabbath with Masonic honors.

Men's Rubber Coats $2.00 and up, at Jos. Woerner's.
Five minutes' inspection of a newspaper will show who are the men who do the business of the town in which it is published. Men who advertise are invariably the ones who do the buying and selling and keep alive the interests of the whole community.

F. C. Harshman will sell at his farm residence, 4 miles north of Eaton on the Eldorado free pipe, on Tuesday, Nov. 14th, several thoroughbred horses, work horses, milk cows, cattle, wagons, bugles, harness, and a big lot of farm implements.

Last week somebody dropped at the front door of our residence a couple of bunches of as fine, crisp celery as ever helped to eat, for which we are much obliged, and don't care if the good hearted donor would call again and leave his card.

Unlaundered White Shirts, linen front and cuffs, 47c., at Jos. Woerner's.
An attempt was made to break into the car of apples, standing on the track in Eaton, on Wednesday night of last week about 12 o'clock. Jesse Kohrer and Peter Oles were sleeping in the car and woke up in time to tell the marauders that they were ready for them.

A shelly county farmer who has lost hogs by cholera for years is satisfied that there is no specific remedy for the disease, and that all advertised "sure cures" are humbugs. He advises that when a hog is taken sick to kill it, and then burn or bury it, for if it does get well it will propagate the disease.

To feed the inmates at the National Home near Dayton, it requires 16 barrels of flour every morning; 16 bushels of potatoes for a meal; 478 lbs of butter per day; 300 lbs of sugar daily; 125 lbs of coffee each day; 300 gallons of coffee for a meal; 1,800 lbs of meat per day; 284 gallons of milk each day. To make one potato pie it takes 40 sheep, 3 barrels of flour and 16 bushels of potatoes.

Men's Cloth Back, Leather Hand Gloves 25c., at Jos. Woerner's.
The struggle now with the average rural newspaper seems to be, to rival its neighbor in toadying to social events. The business is growing devilish disgusting to men of thought and intelligence. Any rattle brain that can sit down and compose a correspondence of neighborhood visits and gossip, gets a hearing in almost every country town paper.

"Soot." We don't want that kind. Give us news items that will benefit the brain, or give us none.
A twelve hour pedestrian feat came off at the Opera House in Eaton on Saturday last, between Harry Fields (colored) and Geo. Graham, for a wager of $500 on paper? Graham made 64 miles in the twelve hours, and Fields 63 miles and thirteen laps—losing the contest by twenty laps. There was but little interest manifested in the affair, and we doubt if the walkers realized enough to pay actual expenses, to say nothing of the wear and tear of boot sole and body. Such muscle and endurance could certainly be put to a more profitable use.

Men's Knit Mittens 25c., at Jos. Woerner's.
Quite a number of sporting men from Ohio arrived here a few days ago and have gone to Bonnie county for the purpose of doing a little deer hunting. Among the number was Dr. G. W. Dickey, a Democrat from Preble county, who comes here every fall to do a little deer shooting. The Dr. made the Eagle of a pleasant call of a few minutes.

The lecture is replete with brilliant and sparkling thought. It is not saying too much for Wendling to assert that he combines the most grace, dignity and reason of any orator on the American platform.
November 23rd, Hon. Geo. R. Wendling will lecture to the Eaton Lyceum. Subject, "Voltaire." The lecture is replete with brilliant and sparkling thought. It is not saying too much for Wendling to assert that he combines the most grace, dignity and reason of any orator on the American platform.

ELDORADO, O., Nov. 6th, 1882.
Yesterday B. F. Diabler and others started for Mercer county, this State, to spend a few days in hunting and fishing. To-day James McCabe and Al. Lock started for Paulding county on a hunting expedition.

This morning Mr. John Stayton and lady start for Pennsylvania on an extended visit to relatives in that State.
On last Tuesday evening D. B. McLean and Miss Lulu Randall were married at the home of the bride's parents, by Rev. Bovey, of New Paris. May they live long and enjoy themselves, are our best wishes.

The Eldorado Cornet Band attended a festival held at New Madison on last Friday and Saturday evenings. They reported a jolly good time.

New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and the rest of the cities may boast of their musical talent, but we claim that we can excel them all. Had B. C. Bent, the eminent cornet soloist, with Gilmore's Band; M. Arbuckle, the pre-eminent cornet virtuoso; P. S. Gilmore, the celebrated Band-master of New York, and the world's greatest cornet virtuoso, J. Levy, been in this place on last Tuesday night, they would, no doubt, have migrated to some remote place, and there secluded themselves forever from the musical world. It had been known to a few of our citizens that a musical fete was in store for them, from the fact that the band were busy day or night previous taken down their instruments from their remote places, where they had been concealed for some time, and dusted the dust from them. In this grand musical exhibition there was no cornet, nor baritone solo, but there was dinner-bells, cow bells, tin horns, and tin-pan solos, to which the musicians did themselves justice. All of this musical display was due to the fact of a wedding happening in our midst. The boys tried to arouse the newly wedded couple to their sense of duty, but the groom did not feel inclined that way. At about midnight or after, the band adjourned to meet on Thursday night at the same place. The band being prompt, (as they generally are on all such occasions) with a few new recruits began their corn-bell and tin-pan solos. The old gent and his lady not being used to such fine music, made their appearance on the ground, telling the boys that the newly married couple were not to leave immediately, which they did in good order. The boys say that they shall give them more music, but at what time we are not able to say.

Sleepless nights, made miserable by that terrible cough. Shiloh's Cure is the remedy for you. Sold by Webb & Coover.

Iron Bridge Letting.
AUDITOR'S OFFICE.
EATON, O., Oct. 26, 1882.
SEALED PROPOSALS will be received by the Commissioners of Preble County, Ohio, at their office in Eaton, until 12 o'clock, noon, on Wednesday, Nov. 15th, 1882, for the erection of a wrought iron bridge over Sevenmile creek, east of Camden. Said bridge to be built in one span of 169 feet in the clear, between faces of masonry, and to have one roadway 16 feet wide in the clear. The capacity of the bridge to be 140 pounds per lineal foot, exclusive of its own weight. The maximum strains due to the specified loads are bridge weight, all not strain the iron more than 12,000 pounds per square inch of net section in tension, and 10,000 pounds per square inch in Gordon's Formula for compression on upper chord and end posts, 3,000 pounds per square inch in Gordon's Formula for intermediate posts. Roadway joists and flooring to be of good, sound oak lumber. Bidders must furnish full plans and section of each principal part. Bidders will be required to include in their bids the labor of taking down an iron bridge 88 feet in length and placing the same in good order on the banks of said creek. Bids to be made per lineal foot of extreme length of superstructure.

Proposals not in accordance with this advertisement will not be considered, and the right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

By order of the County Commissioners.
W. B. MIKESILL, Auditor.
